- CDisc 204.04 T57n Tolle, Eckhart, 1948-. A new earth : awakening to your life's purpose. New York : Penguin Audio, 2005.
Read by the author. Building on the astonishing success of the power of now, Eckhart Tolle presents listeners with an honest look at the current state of humanity: He implores us to see and accept that this state, which is based on an erroneous identification with the egoic mind, is one of dangerous insanity. In a new earth, Tolle tells us there is good news, however. There is an alternative to this potentially dire situation. Humanity now, perhaps more than in any previous time, has an opportunity to create a new, saner, more loving world. This will involve a radical inner leap from the current egoic consciousness to an entirely new one. In illuminating the nature of this shift in consciousness, Tolle describes in detail how our current ego-based state of consciousness operates. Then gently, and in very practical terms, he leads us into this new consciousness. We will come to experience who we truly are--which is something infinitely greater than anything we currently think we are -- and learn to live and breathe freely.

In these inspiring lectures, you will explore one form of mysticism: 'everyday mysticism,' as it was called by twentieth-century theologian Karl Rahner. Under the guidance of Fr. Anthony Ciorra, you will come to find God in the midst of daily life. As you will come to understand, we are called not to be extraordinary mystics, but extraordinary human beings who experience God in ordinary ways."--Container.

Introduction to Meditation: The Way of Silence -- Surprises from the Desert: Learning from the Philokalia -- The Prayer Word: Praying with John Cassian -- Wrestling with Distractions: Quieting the Mind -- Scrupulosity and Freedom -- St. Augustine: Restless Hearts -- Praying with the Body -- Meister Eckhart: Is a Path Necessary? -- Being Held by Love -- Mystical Darkness and Perseverance -- Meditation in Common -- Living in the Presence. Gain profound insights and practical guidance into the Christian traditions of meditative prayer. Many people are familiar with the practice of meditation in Eastern spiritual traditions. What many do not know, however, is that Western mysticism also gives us a rich meditative tradition. From the time of the desert fathers and mothers to the present day, a long line of mystics have given us inspiring, prayerful practices. In Serenity and Contemplation: A Christian Guide to Meditation, you will learn powerful lessons about meditative prayer, or the silencing of the mind. Under the guidance of Fr. Donald Goergen, you will explore such themes as silence, group meditation, and the difference between meditation and contemplation. Along the way, you will be inspired by the teachings of the Philokalia, John Cassian, St. Augustine, St. Dominic, Thomas Aquinas, Meister Eckhart, Teresa of Ávila, John of the Cross, Thérèse of Lisieux, and many others. This series will invite you to pray with fewer words and deepen your experience of contemplation. In these 12 powerful talks, you will learn how to engage in meditative and contemplative practices while appreciating the Christian mystical tradition that has nourished these practices throughout the centuries. As you learn from the great cloud of witnesses who have gone before us, you will expand your horizons of prayer.

- CDisc 248.4 N851 Nouwen, Henri J. M. The lonely search for God. North Bethesda, Maryland : Now You Know Media, Inc., 2016.
Henri Nouwen had a special gift for looking deep into his own heart and discovering insights with universal significance. In these very personal reflections, Nouwen asks, "What does it mean, here and now, to live a life in the spirit of Jesus Christ?" He shows us that the answer lies in a pattern of conversion that transforms loneliness to solitude, hostility to hospitality, and illusion to prayer. Nouwen suggests that to experience life in the spirit of Jesus, one must confront weakness, not bypass it. Candidly exploring his own struggles with loneliness, hostility, and illusion, Nouwen explains that these negative experiences often reveal what is most precious in their opposites - solitude, hospitality, and prayer. Nouwen also discusses the importance of the search for God within Christian communities, reminding us that the prayer and the journey to God must be the central inspiration of any genuine Christian community.
