Disc 1. The shadow effect : a journey from your darkest thought to your greatest dream -- Disc 2. The shadow effect : special interactive edition. Presenter, Debbie Ford ; Deepak Chopra, Marianne Williamson, David Simon, James Van Praagh, Victor Hansen. "The Shadow Effect, a visually stunning and cutting-edge documentary, will inspire you to step out of the self you've known and break free from the bonds of the past. Deepak Chopra, Marianne Williamson, Dr. David Simon, and other world-renowned thinkers join Debbie Ford to reveal the transformative power of your shadow -- the parts of yourself that you dislike and disown, the past that you regret and repress, and the future that is waiting to be birthed. The Shadow Effect will leave you breathing deeper as you take back your power and step into the possibility of the next greatest evolution of yourself. For the first time ever, in the comfort of your own home, you will be guided to unveil the mechanism that drives what you do, what you think, and what you fear. In eight life-changing exercises, you will embrace the parts of yourself that will give you the courage to speak your truth, let go of the old, and open up to your own greatness. In this transformational interactive movie experience, you will reclaim your right to be who you always wanted to be in the world." -- Container.

Begins with the slaughter of Bethlehem's innocents under orders from a paranoid King Herod. Go back a year to the prophecy that informs Zechariah that his wife, Elizabeth, will bear a child. Elizabeth's cousin, the adolescent Mary, struggles with her family to make ends meet and is promised to the carpenter Joseph. Mary is told by the angel Gabriel that she will carry, while still a virgin, the long-awaited Messiah who will liberate the Jews from Herod and his Roman benefactors. Joseph and Mary travel to Bethlehem. Three Magi spend months crossing the desert trying to rendezvous with some point below the convergence of three heavenly bodies in the night sky. Friendship and trust emerges between Mary and Joseph after he is told in a dream that she speaks truthfully about her miraculous pregnancy.
