

Welcome to the Dominican Sisters of Mission San Jose Motherhouse!

Since 1891 the Dominican Sisters have been entrusted with the stewardship of 28 acres of California mission lands that make up our Motherhouse campus. These grounds are home to 66 Dominican Sisters, the Dominican Sisters School of Music and ASEB Mission San Jose, a daytime memory care program open to adults and veterans and operated by Alzheimer's Services of the East Bay. This beautiful campus is our home and a sacred resource we want to share with you. Working together, we can promote the arts, education, environmental sustainability, spirituality and wellness in our community. Come visit, pray, and grow with us!

Civic, community and church groups and non-profit organizations that identify with our mission to serve others and care for our Mother Earth – can reserve space on our campus and grounds. Historic buildings include our Chapel and auditorium, Library conference rooms and parlors. Our new LEED certified Dominican Center features a main assembly room and courtyard; Atrium arts activity and wellness areas, conference rooms and outdoor patios. Religious and civic organizations and community and non-profit groups are welcome to explore the possibilities.

Mission Statement

We the Dominican Sisters of

Mission San Jose

the Congregation of the Queen of the Holy Rosary, are called to live and proclaim Jesus Christ through evangelizing, preaching, education and promoting justice and peace.

In the spirit of Saint Dominic and of our foundress,

Mother Maria Pia Backes, we witness to this call through our vowed life.

Our prayer, study, ministry, and life in community empower us to participate in the mission of Jesus, especially among the young,
the poor, and the vulnerable.
